She finally made the deed and was rebaptized into the Church..	341, 342
She never told him she was forced to give the deed.....		343
WM. BALDERSTON'S testimony—
J. H. Smith asked witness to have repealed the objectionable clause in the Idaho Constitution.....		352
Politicians of both parties want Church influence.....	355, 361
Bishop Budge considered the Church representative in Idaho..		356
Must have been misinformed as to that.....		356
Bishop Clark introduced resolution for amendment to Idaho Constitution, and it passed.....	357, 359
Intended that polygamists should remain disfranchised.....		358
Did not know when the constitutional amendment resolution passed		359
Believed J. H. Smith was using his influence for the amendment, but thought they could beat the Church.....		359
Inferred that the Church did not want a fight.....		360
Favored repealing the Idaho law disfranchising Mormons.....		362
Expected Mormons to cease Church dictation in politics.....	363, 364
Both parties have sent men to Salt Lake City to get the help of the Church		365
Some people think the Church has not dictated; some think it has	365, 366
Mormons get nearly everything they want.....		365
Published an article saying the Idaho Constitution would be changed as desired by the Church unless both parties worked against it.....		406-411
Legislation the fruit of a trade by Mormons.....		407
A. C. NELSON'S testimony—
It was thought the Mormon people had the right by law to secure school houses not otherwise in use and use them for religion class purposes, and the attorney general decided that way, but as State superintendent of public instruction witness forbade such use.....		371, 372
Senator Smoot approved of what he did.....		375
C. M. OWEN'S testimony—
Judge Bartch a Gentile who, for hope of political preferment, is subservient to the Mormons.....		425

	Volume II.	Page.
C. M. OWEN'S testimony (continued)—
Judge Baskin, once a vicious Mormon fighter, has bent the pregnant knee		425
DOCUMENTARY, for Protestants—
Quotations from Church works, Epistle of First Presidency, Deseret News, Salt Lake Tribune, etc., intended to show attitude of the Church regarding earthly governments and other matters		447-491
W. J. McCONNELL'S testimony—
Modification of test oath statutes came through action of convention in which there were no Mormons.....		494
Gov. Morrison was not defeated for renomination by Mormons; would have been defeated if all the Mormons had voted for him		496
Dubois called Mormons criminals.....		499
Mormon Church did not influence election.....		502
Constitutional convention resolution did not refer to test oath of Mormons	504,	514, 527
At every session of the legislature there has been proposed some amendment to the Constitution.....		505
People of Idaho do not do just as Mormons desire.....		505
Mormon Church does not interfere in Idaho politics.....		506-508
Proposed constitutional amendment in Idaho related to other matters than polygamy.....		515
B. L. FRENCH'S testimony—
It is not true that Gov. Morrison was beaten for renomination by the Mormons.....		538, 539
Mr. Jackson's statement that the Mormons defeated Gov. Morrison is an unqualified falsehood.....		540
Statement that parties must have Mormon support to be successful is not true		542
Mormons have 14,000 or 15,000 voters in Idaho, or about one-fifth of the total vote.....		544
Proposed constitutional amendment did not relate to polygamy..		547
F. Z. HOLZHEIMER'S testimony—
Mormon Church did not dominate in Idaho political affairs..	570, 571,	577
Mormons adhere to party lines as well as do others.....		576
No interference by the Mormon Church in Idaho politics.....		577
Mormon Church has never demanded anything from conventions or legislatures		577, 578
Constitutional amendment was proposed for other matters than polygamy		593

FRANK MARTIN's testimony—

Condition described by Mr. Cobb, as to willingness to grant the Mormon Church anything, is not accurate.....	598
Mormons never have asked for anything.....	598
Mr. Jackson's statement that unless the Mormon Church supports a candidate he might as well give up is untrue; Mormons in politics are about the same as other people..	599
Mormon Church does not interfere in Idaho politics. 599, 613, 619, 620	620
Mormon Church did not defeat Governor Morrison for renomination	600
Mormons regarded the Democratic plank of 1904 as a wedge to disfranchise them again	602
Considered the Mormon question a fake issue, false and selfish in its inception, and unwarranted	603
Amendments to the Idaho Constitution were a generally discussed question	607
No reason for apprehension that the Mormon Church seeks to control or influence politics in Idaho.....	613

J. H. BRADY's testimony—

Democratic fight in Idaho in 1904 was not an anti-polygamy fight; it was simply an anti-Mormon fight.....	626
Dubois called Mormon people criminals.....	629
Dubois said J. H. Smith told Mormons how to vote.....	632
Dubois also said J. H. Smith surreptitiously secured passage of a law to take the test oath out of the Idaho constitution..	623
Witness had difficulty in making Mormons believe Dubois had made such statements	642
No Mormon Church influence used in Idaho election.....	643, 652
Governor Gooding would have been elected without the Mormon vote	647
Mormon Church does not get all it wants in Idaho, or it wants very little	649
Mormon control in Idaho is all bosh; it is just the same as in Kansas or Nebraska—when a fellow gets beat there, he attributes it to the railroads; when they get beaten in Idaho they attribute it to the Mormons.....	649
Mormon Church had nothing to do with the defeat of Governor Morrison	649
Reason for resolution on constitutional convention in Idaho is that some of the best lawyers think there is need for such a convention	649
Dubois' fight against the Mormons was religious persecution, not politics	657

J. W. N. WHITECOTTON's testimony —

Both political parties complain that the other side is getting aid from the Church, but witness never knew of aid being given to either	665
---	-----

	Volume II.	Page.
J. W. N. WHITECOTTON'S testimony (continued)—
Church is claimed by some to be Republican, while the Church organ is Democratic		666
Has no evidence of the Church being in politics, though it has had plenty of opportunity, as political leaders on both sides have sought it		666
Upon the dissolution of the Liberal party it was inevitable that the State would go Republican		671
People of Utah pride themselves on independent suffrage, and resent the accusation of Church interference.....	672,	683
Mr. Smoot was not a Church candidate		682
Never say any one in Utah who said he was interfered with by the Church		683
H. E. BOOTH'S testimony—
Mormon Church does not interfere in political affairs... 708, 700, 712
Mr. Knox was defeated in Salt Lake City, for mayor, because Republican Gentiles refused to support him, as a protest against the manner in which he had been nominated, and not by Mormon Church influence.....		700
Owen's statement that Judge Baskin had bent the pregnant knee to the Church is simply ridiculous.....		712
Other churches than Mormon have taken a hand in politics in Utah		713
Ministerial association, an organization representing churches, interfered		713
Senator Smoot was not a Church candidate.....		719
Senator Smoot would have been elected whether the Church consented or not		721
Mormons and Gentiles who run after Church support are condemned		738

W. P. O'MEARA'S testimony—
Jos. F. Smith is keeping the Church out of politics.....		858
W. M. McCARTY'S testimony—
Mr. Miller, a Methodist preacher elected to the constitutional convention, obtained consent from Dr. Iliff, who had charge of the Methodist mission in Utah, to run for the office 891, 892, 894
Gentiles did not object to Mr. Miller getting consent from Dr. Iliff		894
Mormon Church could have absolute control of Utah if it wished to do so.....		929, 949
There is no Church dictation in politics there.....		929-932
Knows of no high Church official who has been refused permis- sion to run for office if he asked it.....		930
Not the understanding that the political complexion of the State shall be the same as the National administration.....		931
In 1896 and 1904, at least, the Church could not have changed the result if it had tried.....		931, 932
A. S. CONDON'S testimony—
Mormon Church did not bring him to vote for Mr. Smoot; he was not approached.....		935, 943
Church has no control over him, and never tried to have.....		936
R. W. YOUNG'S testimony—
Neither the Church nor any person has ever indicated how he should vote, or interfered with his running for office.....		954
Church has no desire to control politics.....		954, 956
(See testimony of this witness under Volume III, same subject.)
E. D. R. THOMPSON'S testimony—
Knows the Mormon Church does not interfere in politics.....		993, 994
Being an apostle did not help Reed Smoot in his election as Senator		994

C. DEMOISEY'S testimony—

Reed Smoot was not helped in his candidacy for Senator by being an apostle 1004, 1005

Volume III.

J. E. TALMAGE'S testimony—

People who violate the law of the land are amenable to that law 23, 104, 105

President of Church has no right to instruct Senator how to vote 33

Church members do not regard the Church as the temporal Kingdom of God 34

Church and Kingdom of God, as understood by the Mormons, promotes obedience to laws of the land and recognizes the National Constitution as of divine origin..... 37

Church members enjoined to obey the law of the land..... 37

B. H. Roberts on the Thatcher case not being an interference with the State by the Church..... 67

As to Judge Powers' allegation that the granting of a liquor license in Provo had been referred by the city council to the Church high council, nothing of the kind ever took place 69-71

Nothing in the endowment ceremony affects a person's obligations to the State..... 71

(See Endowment Ceremonies.)

In the Religion classes, school houses were secured for convenience, and not to use public funds; and the expenses were directed to be paid by the Church organizations..... 78

Order of the Lord in the Birdsall case refers to order of procedure provided by the Lord in the Church courts, and not to the decision of the court; it is not advice not to go to law 92-94

Words "to vote for" in extract from Jos. F. Smith's remarks are put there to mislead. Mr. Worthington suggests. Witness does not know what is meant..... 120, 142

R. W. YOUNG'S testimony—

(See testimony of this witness under Volume II, same subject.)

People to obey law of the land..... 134

Sufficient independence among the Mormon people..... 135

Supporting temporal interests 135-142

If first presidency were to dictate to the people how to vote, it would be sat down upon		350
Mr. Smoot was handicapped by being an apostle.....	356,	392, 397
Some people feel that by having an apostle as Senator the Church is in one sense in politics.....	357,	392, 398

	Volume III.	Page.
F. B. STEPHENS' testimony (continued)—
Does not think the Church sent Senator Smoot.....		357
Gentiles would not object quite so much to sending a Methodist or Presbyterian preacher to Congress as a Mormon apostle.		357
Mormon people resent Church interference in politics.....	358,	377
Some cases where it is felt the Church interfered, such as in the Thatcher case and the election of Senator Kearns....	376,	389
	391, 392,	396
When Judge Powers says there is domination by the hierarchy, witness does not agree with him.....		377
Rumor is that President Snow interfered on behalf of Senator Kearns, rather than that the Church interfered.....		393
President Smith is unfavorable to the Church mixing in polit- ical affairs		393
Mormon Church and its influence was not against Senator Kearns when he was defeated, and took no part in defeat- ing him, but Joseph F. Smith, as president, kept the Church aloof from politics		396
Sentiment of the Church had no part in influencing the election of Senator Smoot or of Senator Sutherland.....		397
American party in Utah is organized in opposition to the Mor- mon Church		399

MRS. W. H. JONES' testimony—
Mormon voters were constant in adhering to party tickets.....		177
Senator Smoot was elected by Mormons and Gentiles alike; his being an apostle made no difference in that.....		178
REED SMOOT'S testimony—
Was active in politics.....		185
Was spoken to by friends as far back as 1898 to run for gov- ernor or for the U. S. Senate.....		186
Was not an avowed candidate in 1900; friends were pressing him to be so, but he declined.....		186
In May, 1902, announced his candidacy for the Senate.....		187
Obtained leave of absence from Church duties before the an- nouncement	187,	228, 306
Church never did anything in the political matters he was engaged in		188
Never asked a vote for the Republican ticket on the ground of his being an apostle or Mormon, or anything connected with the Church		188
Never has been dictated to by the Church or any representative of the Church		188
Church had nothing to do with putting him forward as a candidate		189
The rule of Church officers obtaining consent is not regarded as an endorsement in any way.....		189
Dictation from the Church or any representative thereof would not guide him in the slightest degree in casting his vote; it is none of their business.....		189
Neither the Church nor any representative thereof has ever undertaken to direct him in his duties as Senator.....		189
Never knew of any attempt to use the Church's influence in political matters in Utah.....		189
President Snow did not refuse to permit witness to be a candi- date for the Senate; never asked him.....	226,	240
Heard it said that President Snow favored Mr. Kearns for the Senate; did not hear President Snow say.....	226,	227

	Volume III.	Page.
REED SMOOT's testimony (continued)—
Witness did not think it necessary to resign apostleship to come to the Senate		232, 233
One charge against Moses Thatcher was his refusal to comply with the Church consent rule.....		268
(See Thatcher Case.)
Do not discuss political matters in the quorum of apostles.....		274
O. N. STOHL's testimony—
President Kelly, of Box Elder Stake, never represented to the Brigham City Council that he had had a revelation.....		324
		325, 332, 333
J. U. ELDREDGE JR.'s testimony—
Found the Mormons constant as to party lines		337
Mormons resent the suggestion that the Church interferes in politics		337
